Chapter 7 – Student Rights and Responsibilities

Academic Freedom: Board Policy 4030

Controversial issues and divergent viewpoints have existed among men throughout the history of civilization. Often as a result of the application of this diversity of opinion, a high degree of freedom of expression has been permitted. There must be freedom of the student and teacher to present their viewpoints in and out of the classroom. American democracy is strong enough to stand on its own merits and to survive criticism and comparison with any system so long as its advantages and virtues are not deliberately slighted in such comparisons. However, an atmosphere of responsibility to the students, the College, the community and the nation must accompany these freedoms. To carry out their mutual responsibilities to each other and to ensure these principles of academic freedom, the Board of Trustees, the administration and faculty agree to support certain guiding principles and procedures as set forth below.

1. The faculty member shall:

   (a) Be entitled to freedom of expression in teaching his/her subjects in the classroom. He/she shall encourage fair examination of controversial questions. He/she shall encourage students, by word and example, to form their own opinions based upon critical judgment and documented facts. In his/her presentation of subject matter to his/her students, he/she shall distinguish between objective facts and his/her personal evaluation of facts.

   (b) Be supported in his/her right to participate in legal political activities of the community, state and nation during off-duty hours. No disciplinary action may be brought to coerce him/her for political purposes. (Education Code 13004, 13754). He/she shall permit no outside political activities to interfere with his/her academic duties. He/she should always make clear to audiences that the opinions expressed regarding outside political activities are his/her own and not to be taken as necessarily representing the policies of the College. He/she should refrain from making irresponsible statements to any group.

   (c) Be ever cognizant that it is illegal to advocate the overthrow of the Government by force (Education Code 9455). He/she should make a clear distinction between the description of such philosophies as might fall in that category and the advocacy of such philosophies.

   (d) Emphasize the need for maintaining a level of individual integrity and responsibility consistent with good community relations of the College, when associated with student activities that reach beyond the classroom.

   (e) Provide a fair platform for the presentation of facts when outside speakers are invited to the classroom on the campus. Such speakers should be free to speak on topics which are relevant to questions being discussed in the classroom or campus situation. It may, at times, be desirable for the faculty members and administration to provide information and viewpoints to rebut opinions expressed by such speakers in order to encourage critical analysis of the questions discussed.

2. Classroom policy regarding the discussion of controversial issues shall be:

   (a) That free classroom expression by the instructor and the students be encouraged so long as topics are pertinent to the course being taught. The instructor is careful to be accurate, responsible and aware of the immaturity of some of the students in presenting and discussing controversial topics.

   (b) That the instructor avoids prejudicial indoctrination. He/she points out to students that there may be other recognized views, and he/she carefully distinguishes between personal opinion and documented fact. He/she avoids imposing his/her opinion regarding controversial topics through the pressure of his/her authority in the classroom.

   (c) That discussion of religious concepts is free from restraint so long as it is an integral part of the subject being taught and does not become sectarian indoctrination.

   (d) That the teacher respects the student's right to differ in opinion in any discussion of controversial issues, without penalty, attack, or reflection in grading.

Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is the fraud and deception for the purpose of improving a grade or obtaining course credit, and includes all student behavior intended to gain or provide unearned academic advantage by fraudulent and/or deceptive means.

The student has the full responsibility for the content and integrity of all academic work submitted. Ignorance of a rule does not constitute a basis for waiving the rule or the consequences of that rule. Students unclear about a specific situation should ask their instructors, who will explain what is and is not acceptable in their classes. Violation of this policy will result in appropriate disciplinary action. Specific examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

Taking Information

a. Copying graded homework assignments from another student.

b. Working together on a take-home test or homework when not specifically permitted by the instructor.

c. Looking at another student's paper during an examination.

d. Looking at text or notes during an examination when not specifically permitted by the instructor.

e. Accessing another student's computer and using his/her data as one's own.

Providing Information

a. Giving one's work to another to be copied or used in an oral presentation.

b. Giving answers to another student during an examination.

c. After taking an examination, informing a student enrolled in a later course section of questions that appear on the examination.

e. Taking an examination, writing a paper, or creating computer data or artistic work for another.

Plagiarism

a. Failing to give credit for ideas, statement of facts, or conclusions derived by another author. Failure to use quotation marks when quoting directly from another, whether it be a paragraph, a sentence, or a part thereof.

b. Submitting a paper acquired from a "research" or term paper service.

c. Copying another person's assignment and handing it in as one's own.

d. Giving a speech or oral presentation written by another and claiming it as one's own work.

e. Claiming credit for artistic work done by someone else, such as a music composition, photos, a painting, drawing, sculpture, or design.

f. Presenting another's computer data as one's own.

Other Academic Dishonesty

a. Planning with one or more fellow students to commit any form of academic dishonesty together.

b. Having another student take one's examination or do one's computer data or lab experiment.

c. Lying to an instructor to increase a grade.

d. Submitting papers or speeches that are substantially the same for credit in two different courses without prior approval of the instructors involved.

e. Altering a graded work after it has been returned, then submitting the work for re-grading unless specifically allowed by the instructor.

f. Removing tests from the classroom without the approval of the instructor, or stealing tests.

g. Copying computer software from a floppy disk or a hard drive unless specifically allowed by the instructor.

Academic Renewal: Board Policy 4240

A student may petition the Scholastic Standards Committee to have up to 30 units of “D” or “F” grades removed from the computation of his/her grade point average for students who need a means of tempering their previous academic record so they may successfully accomplish an academic goal. (Title 5, Section 55044). Contact the Admissions and Records Office for petition forms.

Extenuating Circumstances (Withdrawal)

F. Determination after Meeting. The Discipline Officer shall decide whether or not to proceed with the proposed suspension or recommendation of expulsion after hearing the student's explanation and considering all of the information. Mailed notice is presumed received three calendar days after mailing. The written request for an appeal hearing must be submitted to the Hearing Authority, and must cite the specific ground(s) for the appeal (from those listed below), and provide information which substantiates the ground(s) on which the appeal is being made. The failure to request a hearing in a timely manner shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing.

VII. HEARING AUTHORITY’S APPEAL PROCEDURES

A. Sanctions recommended by the Discipline Officer may be appealed, by the student charged, to the Hearing Authority (the Vice President of Student Services or such other official so designated by the Superintendent/President). The appeal must be in writing and received by the Hearing Authority within five (5) school days of receipt of notification of right to appeal.

B. Upon receipt from the student of a request to appeal within the time stated above, the Hearing Authority will review the facts of the Discipline Officer’s findings and recommended sanctions. Sanctions recommended by the Discipline Officer may or may not be suspended until such time as the appeal hearing is held.

C. If after the review, the Hearing Authority determines that an appeal is warranted then the appeal hearing will be conducted with the student within ten (10) school days of receipt of the request to appeal.
