Background
Leadership High School is designed to develop a cadre of high school students to take on key leadership roles in addressing the issues confronting their peers as well as local civic concerns. It empowers youth to function as community trustees and to learn the importance of solving the community’s challenges through individual responsibility. Leadership High School is endorsed by Leadership Redding, a program of the Shasta Regional Community Foundation. Learn more about Leadership Redding at: www.leadershipredding.com.

The Program

OBJECTIVES
To recruit high school students who have demonstrated leadership capabilities to participate in Leadership High School. To provide training on current community issues and principled leadership to program participants.
