Joe Wyse
Superintendent/President

Welcome to our winter sports activities for 2012. We are very proud of all of our athletes and coaches that comprise the 17 intercollegiate sports currently offered at Shasta College.

We are committed to the total education of our student athletes, and are appreciative of their achievements in the classroom and on the fields of play. I hope you enjoy watching our teams compete. I can say with complete confidence that they will play hard, giving 110% of their physical and mental abilities, and with great sportsmanship and class.

Thank you for your interest in Shasta College Athletics. Go Knights!

MEN’S BASKETBALL

SHASTA COLLEGE MEN’S BASKETBALL 2012-13 OUTLOOK

Coach Fitzhugh possesses his usual pre-season optimism for the Knights basketball squad this season. The Knights have four sophomores on the roster, but only three of them have seen any time in a Shasta College uniform. The team is young, but Coach Fitzhugh feels that there is a nice mixture of talent, athletes and cognitive players to create a strong team chemistry. “The success of the season will depend on the development of the freshman, environmentally and athletically,” exclaims Coach Fitzhugh. There are talented players on the team, “it is going to come down to their abilities to place the team goals ahead of their individual goals. If they can do this, I have high optimism for the season.”

The Knights will have three returning players from last years squad that include; two starters and All-Conference players; 6’0 guard, James Williams (Enterprise HS) and 5’10 guard, Stevonte Young (Hayward HS) and one reserve player – 6’3 forward, Anthony Eastman. Anthony broke his hand last year and missed the majority of the Golden Valley Conference season.

James Williams and Stevonte Young have a year experience of playing together and it shows. The two play well together, anticipating each others moves. Both are competitive individuals that do not like to lose, which helps drive them to working our hand with a true focus. James, a tenacious defender, led the state in steals last season as a freshman. He has worked hard of his perimeter shooting and is looking forward to his sophomore season. Stevonte worked hard in the off-season, doing individual workouts to stay on top of his game. His leadership, at the point guard position, is going to be critical for the Knights, especially in the pre-season as the younger players develop.

Anthony was injured last season at a critical time of the season. He had established himself as the first forward off the bench. He is coming back to school in the best condition that Coach Fitzhugh has seen him. He has increased his strength and stamina, two qualities that will be needed from him this season.

The newcomers will bring excitement and fun to the Knights. With several talented individuals, time will be the test for these upcoming players. Coach Fitzhugh comments, “many of the freshman will have a large impact on the success of the Knights season.” He continues, “the speed which these young players adjust to a new system, and higher level of competition, will play a big part in how well the Knights do this season. I know these individuals are very good players, it is how quickly they embrace each other and our program that will determine the consistency of our team.”

Of these newcomers, there are several familiar names that the local community will be excited to continue to follow their athletic careers and development:

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OUTLOOK 2012-2013

The Lady Knights are coming off a 14-10 record from a year ago and having a winning season 15 of the last 16 years. The 2012-2013 Knights will look to contend for the Golden Valley Conference Championship. In order to do that, the Lady Knights must find a way to replace three starters from a year ago. Those players include First Team All State Player Ravien Lawson, All GVC Player Chante Dale, and starting Point Guard Kara Boyle. Stepping up to lead this year’s Lady Knights will be All GVC selection Brittany Garrett along with part-time starters from a year ago Emma Limburg and Jordan Henry. Also, returning guard Abby Cranford and Ashley Sanchez, who is back after a year away. Coach Brown feels that this group of players will only get better as the returning sophomores and incoming freshmen spend time together on the court. The tough early season schedule that the Knights will face will only accelerate that process.

Back Court

The Lady Knights Back Court has four returning players: Emma Limburg, Jordan Henry, Abby Cranford, and Ashley Sanchez. All four will be counted on to play key roles on this year’s team. Joining them in the Back Court will be Grace Fox. Fox comes to the Knights from Foothill High School where she was an All-League selection as a Point Guard. Jaye Ca McGrew, from West Valley High School, brings the team very solid play at the guard position and Amandas Godwin, from Enterprise High School, will bring the Knights very good outside shooting.

Front Court

The Knights Front Court returns one player from a year ago, Brittany Garrett. Coach Brown feels Garrett will challenge to be the top Post player in the league this year. Joining Garrett in the Front Court will be Tiffany Miller. Miller comes to the Knights from American Christian Academy where she led her team to the High School Play-Offs. Lyndsey Brown, from U-Prep, will bring the Knights lots of energy and hustle. She will remind long-time Knight Fans of Hannah Journey from years ago. Rounding out the Front Court will be Janaye Tesarco from American Christian Academy.
