I. POLICY

A person who reports being subjected to Domestic, Dating, Stalking, Sexual violence or misconduct and crimes against children, must be provided written information about her/his right to:

(1) Notify law enforcement and receive assistance from campus authorities in making the notification; and,

(2) Obtain a protective order, apply for a temporary restraining order or seek enforcement of an existing order. Such orders include:

- Standing criminal protective orders.
- Protective orders issued in cases of domestic violence, stalking, harassment, sexual assault, or risk of injury to or impairing the morals of a child.
- Temporary restraining orders or protective orders prohibiting the harassment of a witness.
- Family violence protective orders.
- Authorized by the Vice President of Student Services and/or the Director of Campus Safety, a stay-away order can be issued for on campus purposes with sanctions that can be applied if violated.

(a) Information on how to obtain protective orders shall be provided to an inquiring person.

(3) Provided with written information on victim rights and local victim’s resources.

Shasta College Campus Safety will keep all updated orders on file that are provided to our office. We will uphold the restraining order protections as outlined in the order.
