Maslow’s Hierarchy of human needs is the conceptual framework for the VN Program. Using the hierarchical structure and the nursing process, the vocational nurse has a role on the health care team to identify and prioritize problems and develop nursing interventions to be used while providing care and patient education to patients, individuals and the community.